Stephen Kelly

Stephen Kelly was appointed Chair of Tech Nation in June 2020.

Stephen has extensive executive experience of turning around and scaling global technology companies, from established companies like Sage, scaling companies like Oracle to growing a Silicon Valley startup into a publicly listed company. He is unique as a CEO who grew NASDAQ, FTSE100 and FTSE250 companies.

Stephen has also worked in the UK Government, as COO overseeing digital transformation and recently as the Prime Minister's Business Ambassador for technology.

He is an established investor, board director and mentor with many digital businesses and entrepreneurs, and brings to the role extensive chairing and non-executive experience.
